

Boston May 26 1840
Wednesday.

Dear Caroline

Anne has just informed me in a way peculiar to herself that Mr Hingibury is to call on to-morrow morning to take a letter to you, as he goes to N B in the morning cars. Though it is after 12 I will write a line. Edmund has got the meeting all written up to 11 to-night; so I will only say it was glorious, & we staid till 11 o'clock.
The largest audiences I ever saw at an anti S. meeting. Blappinade a fool of himself & was excessively mortified. I got your letter this morning & was rejoiced to hear of your amendment. I met Mrs & Miss Spooner in the street this morning & they reported you better.
Ma is well at Weymouth, very well we hear. Down to Grandmas where she has not been for a year drinking tea.
The price of Standard is lowered. Maria got 3 subscribers, Emma 5 & I 4. It will get subs easy. Sidney was very earnest to have the price go down. The rest of W's things have not come yet.
Where is Daniel? there is great inquiry for him. Mrs Follen asks every day if he is come & there is much general disappointment that I said at last I was afraid he was sick. Nobody thinks or cares for Jerry. He is mentioned as a duty. Love to Henry. I am glad she could be so helpful. We had quantities of company to tea Mr Angier among others

He not with Emma & we shall say so Angier to him in a little while. The sales for Standard. The day has been rich. Through out.

ever yours Wm
